

Let's

Simple ideas for old-fashioned fun

Simple Play Activities: A Few Ideas

- Play a board game
- Play a card game (Go Fish, War, Concentration)
- Get out some pencils and paper and play tic tac toe or hangman.
- Stay inside and play Simon Says or Mother May I?
- Go outside and play Red Light, Green Light or Red Rover.
- Jacks, dominoes and marbles are inexpensive games and can be used in lots of ways.
- Put on your thinking caps and play 20 Questions.
- Play a memory game like “I’m going on vacation and I’m taking”
- Pick up a Mad Libs book and have fun laughing!
- Play charades.
- Use old sheets to make a tent.
- Go on a walk and collect smooth rocks. Then visit a craft store and get acrylic paints to decorate your rocks.
- While at the craft store, get sidewalk chalk. Play hopscotch, draw portraits, go wild!
- Try an easy sewing project: make beanbags! Once you have made them, they can be used for lots of games.
- Get on the computer and look up recipes for homemade play-doh or bubbles. You’ll have fun looking for the best recipe, fun making the recipe and lots more fun playing with the final product!

Lots more ideas!

78 Parent Child Activities www.lifelearning.today.com

<http://lifelearningtoday.com/2007/05/20/78-parent-child-activities-free-download/>

20 Fun Indoor Games www.todaysparent.com

<http://www.todaysparent.com/toddler/20-fun-indoor-games/>

Sensory Play and Early Child Development www.pbs.org

<http://www.pbs.org/parents/child-development/sensory-play/>

SUNDAY	MONDAY	TUESDAY	WEDNESDAY	THURSDAY	FRIDAY	SATURDAY

